Shri Ravish Verma, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Sanjay K. Agarwal, Dy.A.G. for the State.

Heard.

The grievance of the writ petitioner is to non-payment of his salary for the period June, 2001 to December, 2001. the salary for the earlier period, according to the petitioner has since been paid.

It is the case of the petitioner that though he was present all alone and attending his official duties, respondent no.3, on a wrong assumption that he was not present on duty, did not pay salary to him. It is the further case of the petitioner that though number of representations have been submitted, no attention is being paid to them, with the result that he is being prejudiced for non-payment of salary.

Considering ten limited nature of grievance raised by the petitioner at the time of hearing, the Court is of the opinion that no useful purpose would be served in keeping pending the writ petition as it can be disposed of at the admission stage by
